

Member - 2 - Member Discount Program – 2010

The Member-2-Member Discount Program is a program where members can offer cost savings to other members. There are currently over 65 participating companies that are providing significant discounts to members on goods and services. The program is being widely-promoted through not only the SCBP web site, but also through email and other member communications.

It is a great marketing opportunity for the members that are participating in the program; but in addition, it provides two key benefits to those taking advantage of the discounts: (1) Companies can save significantly by utilizing the discounted services and (2) it's an important employee retention tool. All offers expire December 31, 2010.

Members are eligible to receive real money savings by participating in the Member2Member Discount Program. Contact us to learn how your business can participate – (908)218-4300 or complete the form on the last page of this packet.

A reverse mortgage is a special type of loan that enables individuals aged 62 and older to convert some of their home's equity in to tax free cash. Unlike traditional equity loans, no repayment is required until the home is no longer the principal residence. The customer always retains ownership and cash advances can be taken in a variety of ways and used for any purpose. For SCBP members and their family and friends, Wells Fargo Home Mortgage is offering a free no-obligation consultation and $100 off closing costs
